

During study abroad, I want to get to know more about Madrid and Spanish Culture, while really focusing on my personal interests, projects and hobbies that I don't usually have enough time for here in the US. I did apartment housing since I believe that this is the best way to immerse myself in the city culture and also because, I have lived in an apartment for the last two years and have found it to be my favorite type of housing.